

HARBOR

CRM that fits in a Friday

For indie consultants who still send follow-ups from a sticky note.

The leak

You closed the call. Then the week ate the follow-up.

Pipelines live in three tabs and a guilty feeling.

Indie teams do not need another enterprise cockpit.

They need one list that does not forget.

What Harbor does

One pipeline. Next action on every card.

Nudges that sound like you, not a robot.

Weekly review in twelve minutes.

No seats. No implementation Slack.

Three moves

Capture the call before you stand up.

Harbor drafts the follow-up in your voice.

Friday review shows what actually slipped.

That is the whole product.

Proof, not theater

41 percent more replies in week three.

Consultants who ship notes the same day
stop losing warm deals to silence.

Used by 2k independents. Zero CSMs.

Start free this week

Import a CSV. Book the Friday review.

Keep the weekend.
